Fair; cooler Sunday evening.

The Manchester Signal editor is so mean a Republican that he steals items from Democratic papers and credits them to Republican papers.

The Carnegie Iron Company at Pittsburgh is preparing to erect six new blast furnaces at a cost of $3,500,000. And this, too, in the face of the assertion of Republicans that the Wilson bill would ruin the iron industry.

An amusing feature of the Pennsylvania Republican convention was Senator Quay's offering a resolution advocating civil service reform in all branches of public service, and deprecating "the growing use of money in politics," remarks the Courier-Journal. Perhaps Quay has concluded to reform—like some other boodlers.

BRADLEY'S MISREPRESENTATIONS.

In his speech at Louisville, W. O. Bradley, Republican candidate for Governor, compared the exports of the country for the last fiscal year and in 1893-4 to prove the disastrous effects of the Wilson bill on our foreign trade. Mr. Bradley doesn't seem to know, remarks the St. Louis Republic, that the Wilson bill was not passed until near the close of August and that portions of it did not go into effect until January of this year. The losses or reductions in our exports during the last fiscal year belong almost entirely to 1894 and largely to the months of July and August.

We have been gaining ground all along since the opening of the snowlockade in the first half of February. Our exports of domestic merchandise last month amounted to over $55,000,000, a gain of nearly $4,000,000 or about 7 per cent. over last year's exports under the McKinley tariff law. Going back four months we find an increase from $228,440,000 to $237,025,000. Nor is this comparison made with a year of light exports. During the first half of 1893, immediately preceding the panic of that year, our foreign shipments amounted to $378,000,000. The amount reported for the first half of the present year under the Wilson tariff law is $379,200,000.

Mr. Bradley is misrepresenting facts, too, in saying that "in the sixteen articles produced by the farmer there was a falling off of some six hundred and odd millions to our loss by reason of this tariff bill." The decrease for the fiscal year on all exports was only $76,000,000—not $84,000,000 as stated in another part of the gentleman's speech—and we have already said that it belongs for the most part to the period when the McKinley law was still in force, wholly or in part. Notwithstanding our crop shortage last fall we are exporting more farm products than we were a year ago under the McKinley bill. In July last year our corn exports amounted to 1,006,951 bushels, valued at $493,354. Last month's shipments reached 3,894,857 bushels, valued at over $2,000,000. Here is a big gain in quantity and a still greater one in values. Our barley exports increased from 19,000 to 525,000 bushels, representing last year less than $9,000 and this year $200,000. In oats and oatmeal together our gain was from less than $24,000 to over $138,000. We also increased our rye exports, and the only decrease in breadstuffs reported was in wheat and flour. While the loss here was considerable, it does not offset the gains on the other articles mentioned.

The report for cattle, hogs, provisions and dairy products is similar. Outside of cattle, there was no notable decrease in this class of exports. We gained in hogs, beef, bacon, hams, pork, lard, oleomargarine and butter.

Mr. Bradley should revise the tariff portion of his speech before he gets himself tied fast to its assertions.

AN ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

Anticipated at the Opening of the Opera House To-night—Mr. Hanley and His Play.

The performance at the opera house to-night will in all probability be one of the best given here during the season of 1895-96. The management have secured Mr. Lawrence Hanley and his excellent company for the occasion. Mr. Hanley goes from here for a week's engagement at the Grand, the leading theater in Cincinnati, and here is what the Enquirer says of him:

The regular season at the Grand begins Sunday night when Mr. Lawrence Hanley, who is well known in this city as the leading man of the memorable Booth and Barrett combination, and who supported Madame Modjeska in a similar manner, will give for the week that ingenious play known as "The Player." As will be recalled Mr. Hanley, who has won a high place in dramatic art in the metropolis, appeared in this play in this city to a series of highly pleased audiences. The auditors of that week will readily recall Mr. Hanley as being a magnificent reader and an actor of fine appearance, with a mobile face, capable of delineating the varying shades of the passions superbly. This is a play that has a prologue, and is adapted from "David Garrick." This arrangement permits the prologue to consist of any first-class play. Mr. Hanley will devote the prologue Sunday evening to "Hamlet" and on Monday night to the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet." The repertoire for the remainder of the week will be announced later. Mr. Hanley's associates in the company include the Misses Edith Lemmert, Louise Langtry, Clara Bennett and Maud Le Roy, Messrs. Charles Sutton, J. W. Constantine, Wallace Henderson, Huber E. Bryant and Charles E. Montgomery.

It is to be hoped this excellent company will meet with the reception they deserve to-night. The management of the opera house wish to bring only first-class companies here this season, and they will do that very thing, provided the people of Maysville show their appreciation in the proper way.

HEAVY SUITS FOR DAMAGES.

Postmaster Everett, of Mt. Sterling, After Some Officials and Newspaper Men.

Postmaster George C. Everett, of Mt. Sterling, has filed suit in the Montgomery Circuit Court against J. M. Huff and W. F. Schooler, of the Ashland Sun, for $5,000 damages for publishing an article that he (Everett) was under arrest on the charge of taking $250 from a registered letter. The truth of the matter was that Everett refused to pay his dog tax and the jail sentence was for that, and on a writ of habeas corpus, the Circuit Judge sustained the Postmaster's position, that the tax was n. g.

Mr. Everett has also sued Chief of Police Chas. T. Wilson, jointly with his bondsmen, Wm. Spencer and John P. Games, and the city of Mt. Sterling, for $5,000 for false imprisonment.

Everett's attorneys are O'Rear and Bigstaff, and Woodford & Chenault, of Mt. Sterling, and Hon. G. C. Lockhart, of Paris.

ACCIDENT INS. TICKETS. W. R. WARDER.

Are you taking SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the "KING OF LIVER MEDICINES?" That is what our readers want, and nothing but that. It is the same old friend to which the old folks pinned their faith and were never disappointed. But another good recommendation for it is, that it is BETTER THAN PILLS, never gripes, never weakens, but works in such an easy and natural way, just like nature itself, that relief comes quick and sure, and one feels new all over. It never fails. Everybody needs take a liver remedy, and everyone should take only Simmons Liver Regulator.

Be sure you get it. The Red Z is on the wrapper. J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
